

An Index to Abstracts concerning Chinese Poetry

in the

Revue Bibliographique de Sinologie

(Vols. I-VIII)

and in the

Chūgoku bungaku hō (Journal of Chinese Literature)

(Vols. I-XXII)

Symbols

- * Indicates that an article is mentioned but not discussed.
(Parentheses indicate several articles.)
-  Indicates that the RBS abstract deals mainly with textual history or analysis or discussion.
-  Indicates that the article being abstracted in RBS is contained in the Chūgoku bungaku hō and therefore has an additional English-language abstract in that journal.
Cf. The CBH articles at the end of each period listed for the appropriate CBH volume number.
N.B. The RBS does not (re-)abstract CBH Vol. I articles. And RBS Vol. VIII covers CBH through Vol. XVII.
Later CBH issues have yet to be abstracted for RBS, but of course already have English-language abstracts in the appropriate CBH issue.

Readers unable to consult the original Japanese with facility should read both abstracts when available.
(As a rule, however, the CBH ones are the better ones.)
